ABOUT BEIJING

Beijing is a city of contrast and harmony, where the glorious past meets a sophisticated future, and while often celebrated for its history, it has quietly established itself as a top-tier golf destination, boasting championship-standard courses designed by legends of the game with manicured fairways set against dramatic mountain backdrops.

Beijing offers an unparalleled experience—combining world-class business infrastructure, championship golf, rich cultural heritage, and exceptional hospitality on one of the world's most compelling stages.

BEIJING QINGHE BAY GOLF COUNTRY CLUB

The 2026 China Invitational Cup will be hosted at Beijing Qinghe Bay Golf Country Club from 19 to 23 October.

Strategically located within Beijing's Olympic core, just north of the 5th Ring Road and adjacent to the 1,135-hectare National Olympic Park, the club represents the pinnacle of championship golf design. The venue features two distinct 18-hole championship courses designed by renowned Australian LCW Golf Design Company and American JMP Golf Design Company, offering a true test for competitive golfers with meticulously crafted fairways and scenic parkland-style layouts.

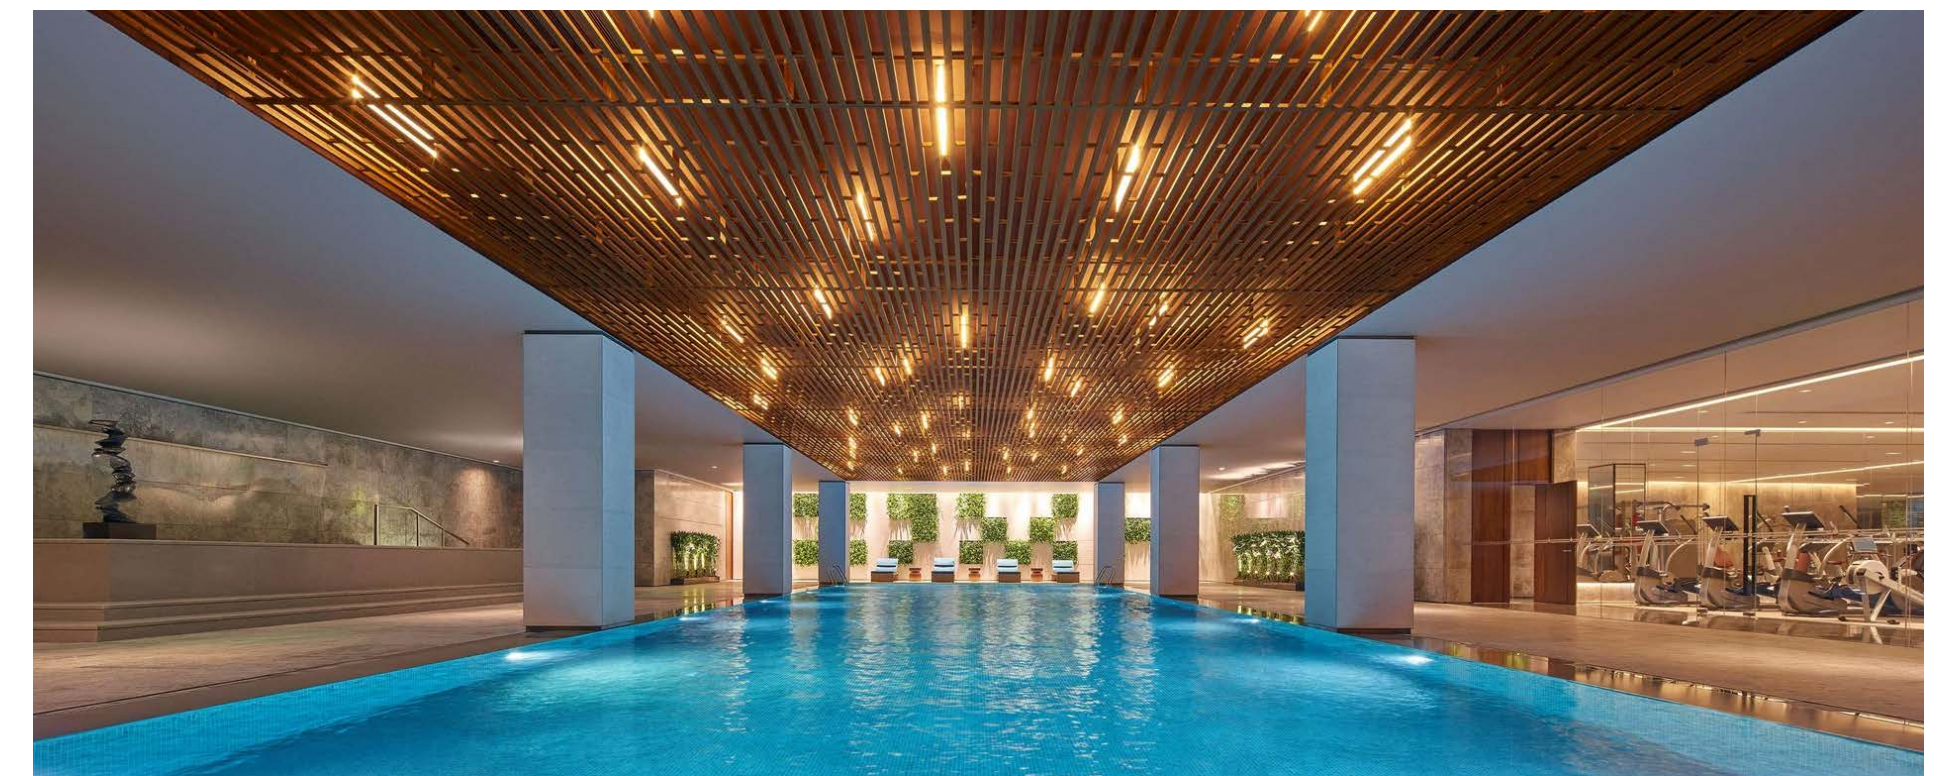

NUO HOTEL BEIJING

NUO Hotel Beijing stands as a landmark of contemporary luxury in the heart of Beijing's cultural district, embodying the fusion of 5,000 years of Chinese heritage with modern elegance.

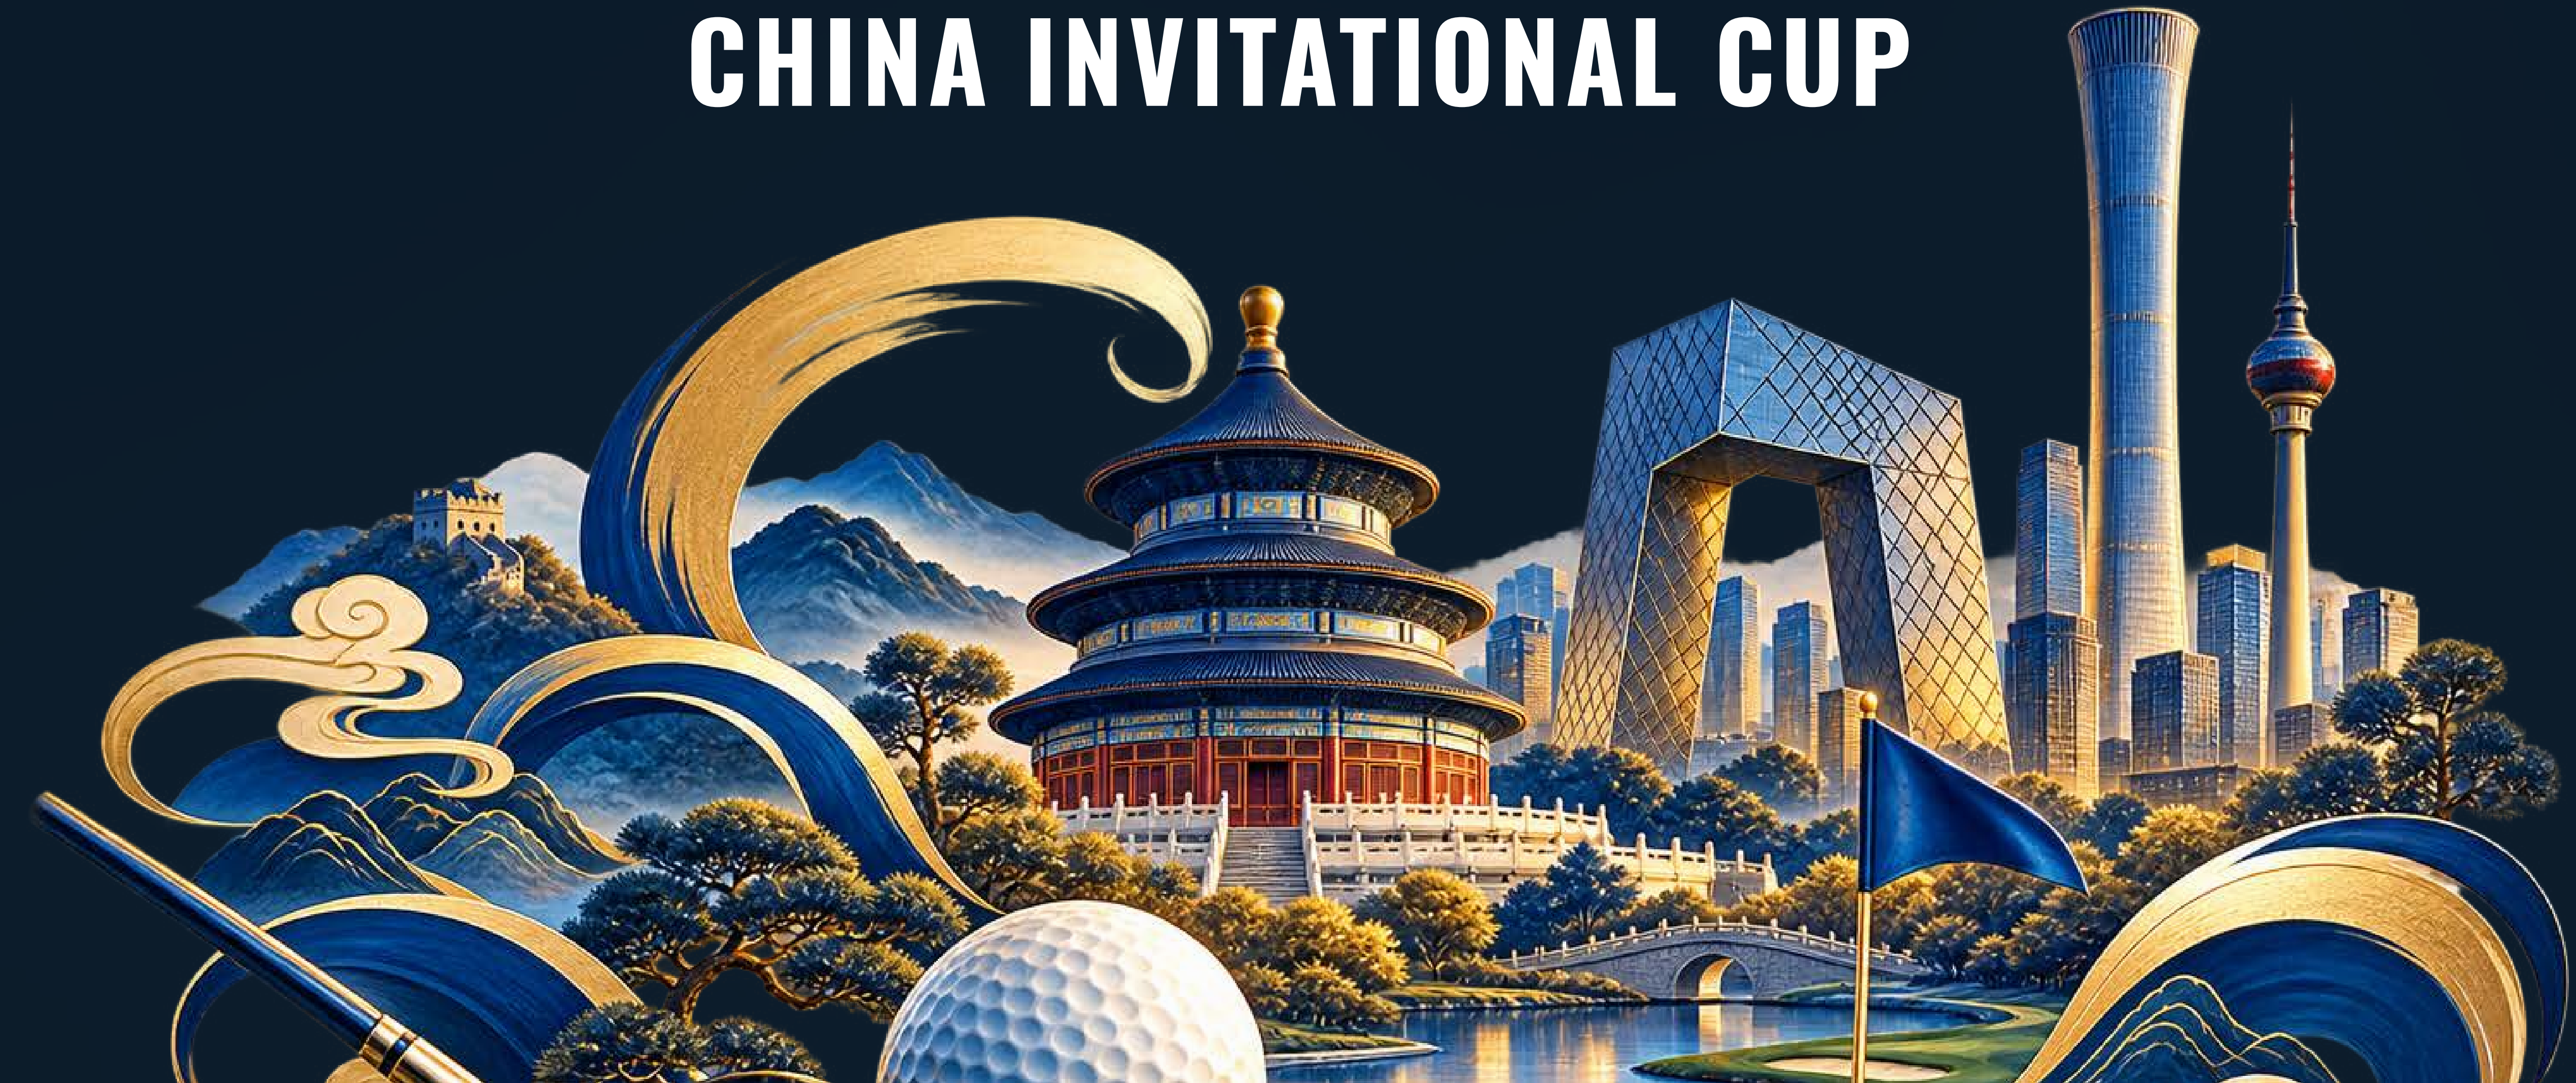

As Kempinski's ultra-luxury "NUO" brand—a name derived from the Chinese philosophy of "a promise worth a thousand gold"—the property showcases 438 rooms and suites infused with Ming Dynasty design aesthetics, complemented by world-class dining across seven acclaimed restaurants and bars, comprehensive spa and fitness facilities, and 2,500 square meters of sophisticated meeting and banqueting spaces including Beijing's largest ballroom.

With its LEED Platinum certification, prime location adjacent to the 798 Art District and cultural landmarks, and commitment to delivering exceptional Chinese hospitality, NUO Hotel Beijing provides the perfect setting for WCGC World Final delegates seeking both refined comfort and immersion in contemporary Chinese culture during their stay in the capital.
